

TIMELY EVENTS PICTURED IN CARTOON BY THE LEADING ARTISTS OF THE COUNTRY

"WELL, I'M THROUGH"

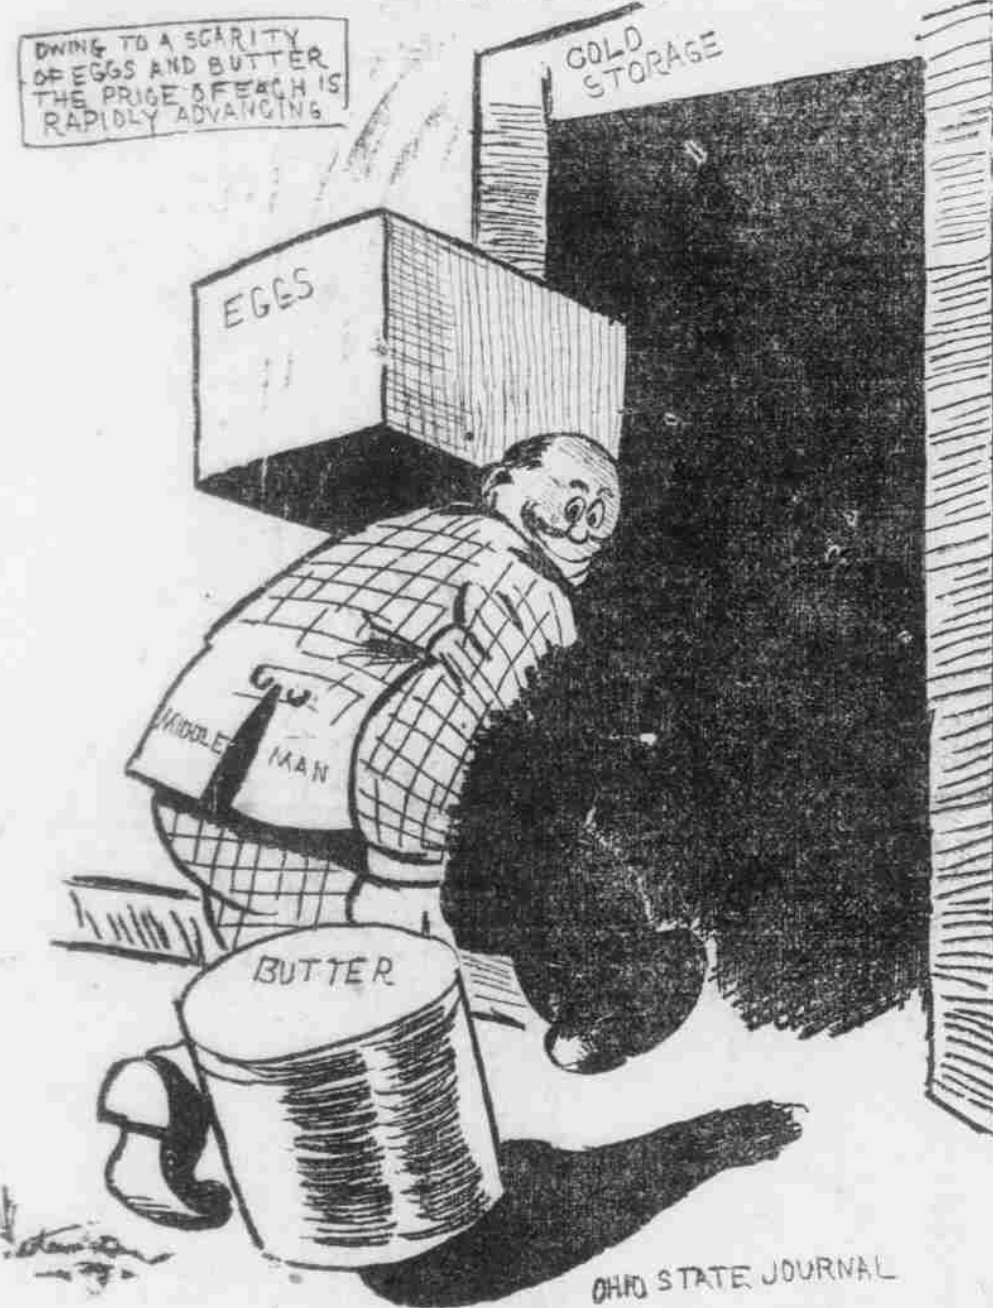

NOT IN MEXICO

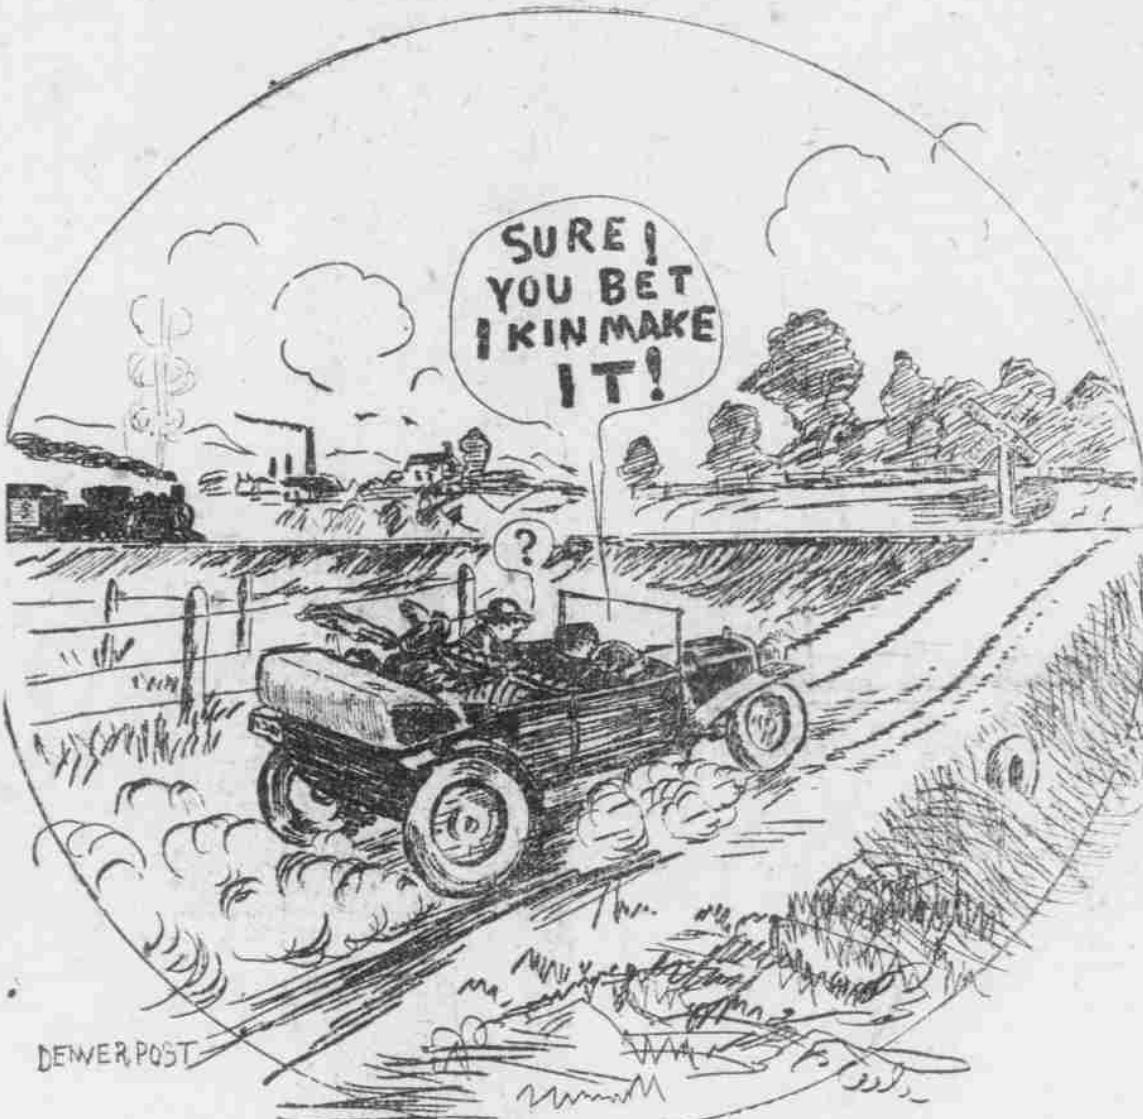

MOURNING HIS BENEFACTOR

THE SCARCITY

IT KEEPS ON "HAPPENING!"

THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Perhaps He'll Be Starring in a Circus Next, Who Knows?

NEWS FROM ONE HUNDRED LIVE CORRESPONDENTS

EASTERN CONNECTICUT AND WESTERN RHODE ISLAND.

Who is Going and Coming—Incidents, Accidents and Building in Three Counties.

New London County

SOUTH LYME

Captain James V. Luce goes to Virginia Plantation—Recent Visitors.

A. H. Miller returned to his home in Jersey City Monday, after a week's vacation.

Mrs. James F. Smith of New London is visiting her parents for the day.

James Slate of Middletown was home over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Waterhouse are entertaining friends from Northport, N. Y.

Mrs. Ellen Douglas and daughter, Wilhelmina, are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. A. H. Miller and children are visiting Mrs. Miller's parents for two weeks.

Captain James V. Luce is down on his Virginia plantation for a lengthy trip.

A large number from this place attended the fair at Guilford.

Miss Mabel Littlefield and Miss Jennie Backus of Lyme were recent callers in the place.

William Slate, Jr., has been ill for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. Sidney Chappell of Norwich was a recent guest of Mrs. Thomas Littlefield.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Curtis Eggleston were renewing acquaintances in this place this week.

ASHWILLETT

Mrs. R. Pugh returned Tuesday from a business trip to New York.

Horatio Pierce is at the home of his father in Hingham for a few days.

William Morgan was a recent caller at his parents', Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Morgan.

Arthur Morgan was a Sunday guest with his parents here.

Samuel D. Pierce was in Norwich Saturday.

There are a number of fields of corn uncultivated here yet.

The farmers are picking apples to make into cider and get them away from stock.

S. Ashberg is at work in Westerly.

Mrs. S. Ashberg is having her house newly decorated inside.

The fine weather since the storm has been ideal harvesting.

SALEM

Yale Professors Leave Country Homes—Mrs. N. R. Siegfried Starts for Ohio.

Mrs. Mabel Moore and children have closed their summer home and returned to Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rogers and son, Gordon Rogers, of New London, spent the week end at Hillside farm, their country home.

Sherwood Aimer, spent the week end at the home of his brother, Wellington Miner, in Norwich.

William H. Maynard attended Berlin fair Wednesday.

Closes Bungalow.

Prof. Hiram Bingham of Yale university has closed his bungalow on Woodbridge Hill for the season and with his wife and children has returned to New Haven.

Prof. Brown of Yale university has returned to New Haven after spending several weeks at his residence in town.

Miss Susan Miner and Enoch Crandall were visitors at Osewagatche last Saturday.

Starts for Ohio.

Mrs. M. R. Siegfried left town Wednesday morning for Philadelphia, where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Catherine Locke and Mrs. Lillian George, before going to Alexandria, O., where she expects to make her home. Her household goods were shipped from Colchester Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Rathbone were Norwich visitors Wednesday.

MOHEGAN

Several from this place attended the funeral of W. T. Storey Tuesday at Groton.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Meach and son of Massachusetts are visiting Mr. Meach's grandmother, Mrs. B. T. Bunker.

Mrs. and Miss Fowler called on friends at Trading Cove the first of the week.

Mrs. Harris called on friends in this place recently.

There were no services in the church Sunday on account of the storm.

Several from Mohegan attended the funeral of Mr. Smith of Massachusetts.

LEBANON

Winners at Whist—Aid Society Gives Supper.

A whist party was held Friday evening in Grange hall. Thirteen tables were played. The following prizes were awarded: Ladies—First, Gwendolyn Clark; second, Mrs. Byron Blakeslee; third, James Caldwell. Consolation prizes went to Mrs. Karl Bishop and Fred M. Abell.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hoxie were in Norwich Tuesday.

Helen Blakeslee of Norwich spent Friday and Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Blakeslee.

Mrs. Hattie S. Robinson is visiting in New Jersey.

Mrs. David Kent and daughter, Alice, of Rockport, Me., and Mrs. Martin of Baltic have been guests of Mrs. N. S. Loomis.

Mrs. Caroline Preston, Mrs. Hulda Peck and Mrs. E. A. Hoxie, Mrs. Charles Geer and Miss Vera Hoxie spent Wednesday with Mrs. Clinton Goodwin.

Faith Webster of Willimantic has returned home, after spending several days with Mrs. N. S. Loomis.

Miss Emma Eldridge of South Manchester is visiting friends here.

Mrs. F. K. Noyes and Miss Mabel Noyes spent Tuesday in Norwich.

Miss Carrie E. McCall of Saybrook has been visiting her cousins, Misses Mary and Elizabeth Randall.

Alice Kellogg of Mystic and Ada Vytken of Rockville were week end guests of Miss Virginia Loomis.

Mrs. N. B. Royall has returned home after visiting in Eaglesmere, Pa., and Binghamton, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Noyes are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Gibbs of East Orange, N. J.

The Ladies' Aid society gave a supper in the church parlors Thursday evening, Sept. 18. About eight dollars was taken in.

GRISWOLD

Mrs. W. B. Montgomery is spending several days in New York.

Mrs. John Mori and son of Jewett City and Miss May Edward of Norwich were pulling on friends in Norwich Tuesday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Meach and daughter, Andrew Meach and family of Danielson were in town Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bitgood, Miss Susie Morgan, Miss Lucy Lathrop and Fred Edmond attended Brooklyn fair Wednesday.

OAKDALE

Ladies' Circle Plans Winter's Work—Sale of Farm.

At the Congregational church on Sunday the Rev. C. L. French preached from Josh. 24: 15. On account of the unpleasant weather the attendance at church and Sunday school was small.

Plans for Winter.

The Ladies' Social union met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. C. Schofield and laid plans for the winter. There was an attendance of 17. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Andrew Pastinak has sold his farm and stock to a purchaser from New Jersey and has moved to one of the tenements in the village. He will work in the mill.

Mrs. Clyde Beebe and Miss Fannie Raymond of Uncasville were calling on friends at Montville Center Wednesday.

Town School Supervisor C. E. Wheeler visited schools in this section Wednesday.

William Chapel and Miss Ella Chapel returned Saturday from a visit to friends in Souville.

T. Fred Edmond of Griswold was an over Sunday visitor at the parsonage.

Local Notes.

Miss Ethel Foote is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. A. H. Chapman.

E. Fitch Johnson of Norwich spent Sunday and Monday in this place.

After spending two weeks in Norwich, Mystic and Boston, H. Auwood has resumed his duties as mail carrier.

Mrs. Frank Case is spending a few days with her parents in East Colchester.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Chapman, Miss Ethel Foote and Frank Case attended Berlin fair Wednesday.

John Treadway and James O'Brien will spend Sunday at their homes in Colchester.

Mrs. William May of Mystic is spending a few days with her husband, who is ill at the home of his father.

Dr. Lawson of New London was a caller here Sunday.

COSHEN

Funeral of Mrs. Laura T. Huntley—Ladies' Aid Society Meets with Mrs. Waterman.

The death of Mrs. Laura T. Huntley aged 88 occurred at the state hospital, Norwich, early Saturday morning.

Mrs. Huntley had been in failing health for several years. She had resided in Coshen for quite a number of years with her only surviving sister, Mrs. Joseph McCall. The funeral was held at her former home here

LEDYARD

School Grant Received—Larkham Will Probated—William Maynard Back from California.

The town of Ledyard has received from the comptroller the average attendance grant due the town for schools, amounting to $2,027.92.

Owing to the stormy weather there was a small attendance at church on Sunday morning.

Wedding Invitations.

Invitations have been received for the wedding of Anna Alice Finnegan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John William Finnegan, and Ellsworth Cutler Gray at the home of the bride's parents Tuesday evening, Oct. 14, at 6 o'clock. At home after Nov. 1, Danbury, Conn.

Emmons White, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. F. White, who has been doing private tutoring at Yale, has been spending a few days with his parents here. Harold, another son of Rev. and Mrs. White, has entered Yale this year.

Case Continued.

The adjourned case of Enos M. Gray vs. Fred Gardner, which was heard before Justice Samuel E. Holdridge Saturday last, has been further adjourned until Oct. 7.

Charles Sweetzer has resumed his duties as mail carrier after a vacation of two weeks.

Charles S. Hewitt is working at carpentry for his brother, James Hewitt, of Norwich.

Noyes B. Allen of Gales Ferry was a caller at the probate office Monday.

Mrs. Shubael Holmes and Mrs. Nellie Main of Preston City visited the former's daughter, Mrs. S. E. Holdridge, Thursday afternoon.

Will Probated.

The last will and testament of Frank P. Larkham was allowed and admitted to probate Thursday. Three lawyers and many witnesses were present. It is not known as yet whether an appeal will be taken from Judge Holdridge's decision.

Samuel Lamb, who has been a chauffeur at Eastern Point during the summer, is now in the employ of Charles E. Maynard.

Charles E. Maynard recently purchased a pair of nice oxen from Salem parties.

William I. Allen of this town has some very handsome apples on exhibition in Woodward's store window in Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Avery have been staying the past week in New London.

Miss Laura Perkins of Gales Ferry is staying for a few days with Mrs. Isaac G. Geer.

After Forty Years.

William Maynard and son of California are visiting the former's nephew, Charles E. Maynard, and other relatives in the east. Mr. Maynard has been in the east for over forty years.

NORTH LYME

Mrs. Edwin Rogers returned Wednesday from Lyme, where she has been assisting Mrs. Will Caulkins the past two weeks.

S. Strong attended Berlin fair Wednesday and visited H. A. Gates in Little River over Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Tooker of Hartford is visiting Mrs. G. H. Strong.

Mrs. Laura Tooker of Hartford who has a summer residence on Woodbridge Hill, purchased a valuable young horse of J. W. Stark last week.

Mrs. Warren Rogers is ill. Her mother, Mrs. Maynard of East Lyme is caring for her.

Mrs. Raymond Morgan of Providence was in town over the fair.

LEDYARD

School Grant Received—Larkham Will Probated—William Maynard Back from California.

The town of Ledyard has received from the comptroller the average attendance grant due the town for schools, amounting to $2,027.92.

Owing to the stormy weather there was a small attendance at church on Sunday morning.

Wedding Invitations.

Invitations have been received for the wedding of Anna Alice Finnegan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John William Finnegan, and Ellsworth Cutler Gray at the home of the bride's parents Tuesday evening, Oct. 14, at 6 o'clock. At home after Nov. 1, Danbury, Conn.

Emmons White, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. F. White, who has been doing private tutoring at Yale, has been spending a few days with his parents here. Harold, another son of Rev. and Mrs. White, has entered Yale this year.

Case Continued.

The adjourned case of Enos M. Gray vs. Fred Gardner, which was heard before Justice Samuel E. Holdridge Saturday last, has been further adjourned until Oct. 7.

Charles Sweetzer has resumed his duties as mail carrier after a vacation of two weeks.

Charles S. Hewitt is working at carpentry for his brother, James Hewitt, of Norwich.

Noyes B. Allen of Gales Ferry was a caller at the probate office Monday.

Mrs. Shubael Holmes and Mrs. Nellie Main of Preston City visited the former's daughter, Mrs. S. E. Holdridge, Thursday afternoon.

Will Probated.

The last will and testament of Frank P. Larkham was allowed and admitted to probate Thursday. Three lawyers and many witnesses were present. It is not known as yet whether an appeal will be taken from Judge Holdridge's decision.

Samuel Lamb, who has been a chauffeur at Eastern Point during the summer, is now in the employ of Charles E. Maynard.

Charles E. Maynard recently purchased a pair of nice oxen from Salem parties.

William I. Allen of this town has some very handsome apples on exhibition in Woodward's store window in Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Avery have been staying the past week in New London.

Miss Laura Perkins of Gales Ferry is staying for a few days with Mrs. Isaac G. Geer.

After Forty Years.

William Maynard and son of California are visiting the former's nephew, Charles E. Maynard, and other relatives in the east. Mr. Maynard has been in the east for over forty years.

NORTH LYME

Mrs. Edwin Rogers returned Wednesday from Lyme, where she has been assisting Mrs. Will Caulkins the past two weeks.

S. Strong attended Berlin fair Wednesday and visited H. A. Gates in Little River over Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Tooker of Hartford is visiting Mrs. G. H. Strong.

Mrs. Laura Tooker of Hartford who has a summer residence on Woodbridge Hill, purchased a valuable young horse of J. W. Stark last week.

Mrs. Warren Rogers is ill. Her mother, Mrs. Maynard of East Lyme is caring for her.

Mrs. Raymond Morgan of Providence was in town over the fair.

LEDYARD

School Grant Received—Larkham Will Probated—William Maynard Back from California.

The town of Ledyard has received from the comptroller the average attendance grant due the town for schools, amounting to $2,027.92.

Owing to the stormy weather there was a small attendance at church on Sunday morning.

Wedding Invitations.

Invitations have been received for the wedding of Anna Alice Finnegan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John William Finnegan, and Ellsworth Cutler Gray at the home of the bride's parents Tuesday evening, Oct. 14, at 6 o'clock. At home after Nov. 1, Danbury, Conn.

Emmons White, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. F. White, who has been doing private tutoring at Yale, has been spending a few days with his parents here. Harold, another son of Rev. and Mrs. White, has entered Yale this year.

Case Continued.

The adjourned case of Enos M. Gray vs. Fred Gardner, which was heard before Justice Samuel E. Holdridge Saturday last, has been further adjourned until Oct. 7.

Charles Sweetzer has resumed his duties as mail carrier after a vacation of two weeks.

Charles S. Hewitt is working at carpentry for his brother, James Hewitt, of Norwich.

Noyes B. Allen of Gales Ferry was a caller at the probate office Monday.

Mrs. Shubael Holmes and Mrs. Nellie Main of Preston City visited the former's daughter, Mrs. S. E. Holdridge, Thursday afternoon.

Will Probated.

The last will and testament of Frank P. Larkham was allowed and admitted to probate Thursday. Three lawyers and many witnesses were present. It is not known as yet whether an appeal will be taken from Judge Holdridge's decision.

Samuel Lamb, who has been a chauffeur at Eastern Point during the summer, is now in the employ of Charles E. Maynard.

Charles E. Maynard recently purchased a pair of nice oxen from Salem parties.

William I. Allen of this town has some very handsome apples on exhibition in Woodward's store window in Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Avery have been staying the past week in New London.

Miss Laura Perkins of Gales Ferry is staying for a few days with Mrs. Isaac G. Geer.

After Forty Years.

William Maynard and son of California are visiting the former's nephew, Charles E. Maynard, and other relatives in the east. Mr. Maynard has been in the east for over forty years.

NORTH LYME

Mrs. Edwin Rogers returned Wednesday from Lyme, where she has been assisting Mrs. Will Caulkins the past two weeks.

S. Strong attended Berlin fair Wednesday and visited H. A. Gates in Little River over Thursday.

Mrs. Laura Tooker of Hartford is visiting Mrs. G. H. Strong.

Mrs. Laura Tooker of Hartford who has a summer residence on Woodbridge Hill, purchased a valuable young horse of J. W. Stark last week.

Mrs. Warren Rogers is ill. Her mother, Mrs. Maynard of East Lyme is caring for her.

Mrs. Raymond Morgan of Providence was in town over the fair.

LEDYARD

School Grant Received—Larkham Will Probated—William Maynard Back from California.

The town of Ledyard has received from the comptroller the average attendance grant due the town for schools, amounting to $2,027.92.

Owing to the stormy weather there was a small attendance at church on Sunday morning.

Wedding Invitations.

Invitations have been received for the wedding of Anna Alice Finnegan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John William Finnegan, and Ellsworth Cutler Gray at the home of the bride's parents Tuesday evening, Oct. 14, at 6 o'clock. At home after Nov. 1, Danbury, Conn.

Emmons White, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. F. White, who has been doing private tutoring at Yale, has been spending a few days with his parents here. Harold, another son of Rev. and Mrs. White, has entered Yale this year.

Case Continued.

The adjourned case of Enos M. Gray vs. Fred Gardner, which was heard before Justice Samuel E. Holdridge Saturday last, has been further adjourned until Oct. 7.

Charles Sweetzer has resumed his duties as mail carrier after a vacation of two weeks.

Charles S. Hewitt is working at carpentry for his brother, James Hewitt, of Norwich.

Noyes B. Allen of Gales Ferry was a caller at the probate office Monday.

Mrs. Shubael Holmes and Mrs. Nellie Main of Preston City visited the former's daughter, Mrs. S. E. Holdridge, Thursday afternoon.

Will Probated.

The last will and testament of Frank P. Larkham was allowed and admitted to probate Thursday. Three lawyers and many witnesses were present. It is not known as yet whether an appeal will be taken from Judge Holdridge's decision.

Samuel Lamb, who has been a chauffeur at Eastern Point during the summer, is now in the employ of Charles E. Maynard.

Charles E. Maynard recently purchased a pair of nice oxen from Salem parties.

William I. Allen of this town has some very handsome apples on exhibition in Woodward's store window in Norwich.